

REMARKS

The present paper is filed in as a supplemental response to a non-final office action dated April 7, 2010. The initial and complete response was filed on October 7, 2010. The present paper is being filed in order to correct an inadvertent amendment that was made to the claims in the paper on October 7, 2010.

In the response filed October 7 2010 the undersigned representative inadvertently added the phrase "for sequencing of a target nucleic acid" into claims 97 and 166. Applicants present this supplemental amendment in order to remove that phrase from the two claims. The remainder of the arguments and amendments presented in the response filed on October 7, 2010 remain in effect and Applicants believe they overcome the rejections raised in the previous office action. Applicants respectfully request allowance of the claims as presented above in view of the arguments presented on October 7, 2010.

The Commissioner is authorized to charge any additional fees or credit any overpayment to the Deposit Account of McAndrews, Held & Malloy, Account No. 13-0017.

Dated: October 12, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

/Nabeela R. McMillian, #43,363/
